Office of Services to the Aging

LEADERSHIP AND STAFF

Executive Office

Kari Sederburg
Director
OSADirector@Michigan.gov

Appointed by Gov. Rick Snyder in June 2011, Director Sederburg serves as the chief advocate for Michigan's 1.9 million older adults. In this role, Sederburg advises the executive and legislative branches of government on shaping policies to help older adults remain in their communities with the supports and services they need. Under Sederburg's direction, the Michigan Office of Services to the Aging administers nearly $93 million in federal and state funding for aging programs across Michigan.

Rhonda Powell
Deputy Director
PowellR4@Michigan.gov

Deputy Director Powell is responsible for the internal operations of the Michigan Office of Services to the Aging and plays a critical leadership role in the development of statewide strategic initiatives for aging services, programs and supports.

Previously, Powell served as director of Macomb County Senior Citizen Services, a position she was appointed to by Macomb County Executive Mark Hackel.
