ern superintendency, and Thomas Lightfoot, United States Indian agent for the Iowa tribe of Indians; and the Iowa tribe of Indians by their delegates, Nag-ga-rash, To-hee, Mah-hee, Tar-a-kee, Ki-ho-ga, and Craton-tha-wa, of the first part, and Ephraim D. Pratt, Lorenzo B. Williams, and Thomas McCague, of the city of Omaha, in the county of Douglas and State of Nebraska, of the second part, witnesseth:

That the parties of the first part, for and in consideration of the covenants on the part of the parties of the second part, hereinafter contained, have this day demised, leased, and rented, and by these presents do demise, lease, and rent for the term of twenty-five years from the date of this instrument, unto the parties of the second part, their heirs and assigns, all of the land now owned and occupied by the Iowa tribe of Indians lying and being in the States of Kansas and Nebraska, for the purpose of prospecting for and mining coal and coal minerals, including "fire clay," with the right and privilege to take therefrom all coal and clay for their own use and behoof, together with so much of the timber growing upon the said lands as may be required for propping up the mines and prosecuting the same; also, 25 acres of the surface of said tract of land, the precise location of which shall be designated at some future time, subject to the approval of the Iowa tribe of Indians, by their delegates or chief, for the legitimate prosecution of their said mining operations. The said party of the first part further agrees to give unto the said party of the second part quiet and peaceable possession of said land, and to defend them therein, together with the privilege of ample roadways across said tract of land to and from said mines without charge or cost, subject to the conditions hereinafter mentioned. The parties of the second part agree to keep a correct account of all coal mined from said coal lands, and to render a correct account of the same every three months, and to pay 1 cent per bushel as rent for the same to the said party of the first part.

The said party of the first part shall be privileged by their agent or representative at all times to examine the mines and the mining operations of the party of the second part, together with their books, papers, and accounts, and every requisite facility shall be given to them to ascertain the précise amount of coal mined or sold from said lands. The parties of the second part agree to faithfully work the said mines if,
