This activity may result in the loss of employment for approximately 110 individuals. While the separations are expected to take effect beginning 07/07/2008, the actual number of affected individuals may be less than indicated above due to the possibility that some of the notified individuals may transfer or be re-assigned to other facilities. Each affected individual will be given 60 days notice. None of the employees are represented by a union nor do they have any bumping rights. An amplification of those who may be affected is as follows:

Job Classification	Number of Employees
Managers	8
Professionals	95
Technicians	6
Clericals	1

I may be contacted at 972-797-3773 for further information.
