Episode Hosts: Holly Vaughn, Hannah Schauer and Rachel Leightner
Producer: Eric Hilliard
Featured Guest: Ed Golder

Wildlife Spotlight Species: The Wood Frog

Working for Wildlife

- All About Birds from The Cornell Lab of Ornothology
- Michigan Butterfly Network
- Michigan.gov/Turkey

Interview
Holly, Hannah and Rachel talk with the DNR's Public Information Officer, Ed Golder, about the DNR's efforts to provide fun, safe, outdoor recreational opportunities for Michigan citizens in the midst of a pandemic.

- Michigan DNR Covid-19 Frequently Asked Questions
- Subscribe to DNR Emails
- Michigan.gov/CoronaVirus

The Mailbag
This month, we are answering questions about duck nests near homes, discovered nests of newborn bunnies and what to do about tree stands found on public land after March 1st.

- Michigan.gov/Wildlife
- Michigan.gov/RAP

Final Thoughts: Bears in the Springtime
The episode is capped off with a discussion about black bear activities in Michigan during the spring months and how you can avoid conflicts.

- Michigan.gov/Bear
- Nuisance Wildlife Information
- Video: Preventing Conflicts with Bears

Questions or comments about this episode?
Contact the DNR Wildlife Division at 517-284-9453 (WILD) or email dnr-wildlife@michigan.gov