

Rights Implicated by Public Health Actions in Response to WMD Terrorism

Right	Public Health Action
Freedom of Movement and Travel	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Isolation of infected individuals and individuals suspected of being infected with biological agents -Compulsory hospitalization, treatment, or decontamination -Quarantine of populations in geographical areas -Preventing people from entering quarantine or contaminated areas -Evacuation of people Other:
Freedom of Association	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Isolation of infected individuals and individuals suspected of being infected with biological agents -Quarantine of populations in geographical areas -Prohibitions on public meetings or social gatherings Other:
Personal Integrity and Security of Person	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Compulsory vaccination -Compulsory administration of antidotes and antibiotics -Compulsory decontamination -Compulsory medical examinations -Compulsory collection of biological specimens -Overcoming resistant citizens -Handling of diseased or contaminated corpses Other:

Privacy	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Reporting of cases of illnesses and injuries -Access to health-care provider records (HIPAA) -Data sharing with law enforcement and emergency management authorities -Identification of infected or injured persons -Tracing of contacts of infected or injured persons Other:
Freedom of Speech	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Restrictions on the publication or broadcasting of information in order to preserve civil order and the effectiveness of public health responses (free press, FOIA) Other:
Private Property	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Seizure and use of vaccines and drugs (private stocks) -Access to suspicious buildings -Closing of buildings -Temporary use of health care and other privately owned facilities (hospitals, hotels) -Decontamination of property -Seizure and destruction of contaminated property -Compel drug companies to produce drugs, vaccines Other:
Due Process of Law	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Emergency context prevents citizens from having challenging public health action in court before the government infringes on civil rights -Rationing scarce pharmaceuticals Other: