INSTRUCTIONS
(PLEASE READ VERY CAREFULLY)

USE THIS FORM IF

- You want to designate a different beneficiary from any previous beneficiaries.
- Any or all of your previously designated beneficiaries have died.
- You get a divorce, and wish to change your beneficiary.

NOTE: Divorce automatically cancels a spouse's beneficiary designation. If you want to keep your ex-spouse as a beneficiary, you must file a new form with "ex-spouse" or "friend" in the "Related To Me As" column in the designation section.

WHO CAN BE NAMED AS A BENEFICIARY

- Any person or institution – except a funeral home.

HOW TO LIST A BENEFICIARY ON THIS FORM

- If a married woman is to be named as a beneficiary for Employee Coverage benefits, her full given name should be shown – for example, Mary J. Smith, not Mrs. John H. Smith. Likewise, if the employee is a married woman, she should sign her full given name.
- When two or more beneficiaries are named for Employee Coverage benefits and they are not to share equally, the percentage each beneficiary is to receive should be shown. Dollars and cents should not be specified.

IF YOU WANT TO NAME A CONTINGENT BENEFICIARY

- An employee may designate a "contingent beneficiary" who should receive Employee Coverage benefits in the event the named beneficiary(ies) die(s) before the employee. Otherwise, if the named beneficiary dies before the employee and no "contingent beneficiary" is named, Employee Coverage benefit amounts will be paid as follows:
 - First, to the employee's spouse, if living;
 - Otherwise, equally to the employee's natural and adopted child(ren);
 - Otherwise, equally to the employee's surviving parents;
 - Otherwise, equally to the employee's brother(s) and sister(s);
 - Otherwise, to the employee's estate.

ACCIDENTAL DUTY DEATH INSURANCE

Accidental Duty Death Insurance is a benefit for all employees who are eligible for life insurance. The insurance pays $100,000, in addition to the employee's regular group life insurance, if an employee's death results from accidental personal injuries arising out of or in the course of state service, and the employee's death occurs within 180 days of the accident.
