The following is the behavior section of the questionnaire. This section can be detached if necessary.

Because this section asks about illegal substances and behaviors, informed consent is required by law.

A consent form must be used if this section is to be given to students. The consent form must contain wording indicating that the questions will ask about illegal substance use and behaviors and that students do not have to answer questions that makes the student feel uncomfortable or that the student or the student's parents think the student should not answer.
