

Session 9:

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF MDOT LEADERSHIP

Organization

The MDOT Leadership Team:

Chief Administration Officer

- Bureau of Multimodal Transportation Director
- Bureau of Transportation Planning Director
- Bureau of Finance and Administration

Chief Operation Officer

- Bureau of Highway Development Director
- Bureau of Highway Delivery Director
- Region Engineers

Organization

Region and TSC Leadership

Region Engineer

- Associate Development Engineer
- Associate Delivery Engineer
- Regional Planner

TSC Manager

- Engineer of Development
- Engineer of Delivery

Organization

Leadership Team:

- Directs CSS Implementation Plan
- Identifies and Sponsors Staff

Project Planning and Development Staff

- TSC/Region development engineers
- Planners and environmental specialists
- Scoping staff
- Project managers
- Designers
- Planning and design consultants
- Real estate

Delivery Staff

- TSC/Region delivery engineers
- Construction inspectors
- Traffic operations
- Direct Maintenance
- Contract Maintenance (by City and County staff)
- Consultants and contractors

Implementation

- Establish the funding mechanism to provide the necessary training and materials

Implementation

- Develop CSS Champions within MDOT to provide the ongoing resources and support, and to help ensure consistency of the approach.

Implementation

- Establish procedures to identify stakeholders and their concerns during project scoping.

Implementation

- Create an annual awards program to recognize outstanding achievement in the application of CSS to further encourage CSS in transportation.

Conclusion

- MDOT's Leadership Team is dedicated to the successful implementation of CSS on all transportation projects.

Blue Water Bridge, MI, between U.S. and Canada