

Who Is Eligible?

Cities, villages or townships may voluntarily enter conditional land transfer agreements. The agreements are normally between cities and townships but there have been city-to-city and township-to-township agreements.