

Come Learn About the Outlook for Jobs in Your Region

Join us for a unique opportunity to discuss key workforce issues facing your regional economy. If you are an employer, educator, workforce professional, economic developer, job placement specialist, counselor, or anyone with a stake in the performance of your regional labor market, this conference is for you!

Information will be presented on:

- the impact of the economic recession of 2001 on jobs and income
- recent and future trends impacting jobs
- the employer and educator perspectives on the challenges of preparing workers for jobs
- the regional outlook for jobs by occupation in Career Pathways

Hosted by:

Conference fee: $20.00 (includes continental breakfast and lunch). Please make check payable to the State of Michigan. RSVP by sending your check with the enclosed card. Be sure to designate the conference you will be attending. Check-in and continental breakfast begin one hour before the conference.

If you have questions, please call (517) 241-0592.
