

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE FIGHTS MORTGAGE FRAUD

CHARGED 20 CASES WITH FRAUD TOTALING OVER $1.75 M.

The Attorney General's Office has made prosecuting mortgage fraud a priority for his office. A mortgage fraud unit was created and teamed up with the Michigan State Police and other law enforcement agencies to tackle the problem. Since January 2009, the Attorney General's Office has arrested twenty individuals charged with mortgage fraud related crimes totaling at least $1.75 million in losses. They have been charged with some of the toughest crimes a prosecutor can charge for white collar crime - racketeering, uttering and publishing and false pretenses.

These mortgage fraud schemes involve the use of inflated appraisals and straw buyers to gain mortgages far greater than the value of the property. The criminals take the extra money from the mortgage and leave the straw buyer hanging with a mortgage they cannot afford and property worth far less than the mortgage amount. The following twenty people have been charged and this is only the beginning:
