Re: Attorney General's Michigan Cyber Safety Initiative

Dear Attorney General Cox:

Thank you for providing Lansing the opportunity to participate in your Internet safety pilot program.

I am well aware of the dangers that exist on the Internet and how difficult it can be to steer students clear of those dangers. That is why when I personally reviewed the pilot program material, I jumped at the opportunity for Lansing Public School to partner with your office. My foresight proved correct, as district teachers have commented the program is right on target for students of the cyber generation. I recommend this program to all Michigan superintendents.

With school resources continually being limited, we welcomed your office's expertise. We appreciate the extensive efforts made to make program implementation easy. You are providing an important service that many schools may not have the opportunity to experience were it not for your initiative. During the pilot week in Lansing, your office visited 14 elementary buildings and two middle schools, delivering the cyber safety message to more than 4300 students.

The Lansing School District appreciates the privilege of being involved in the pilot. As I previously mentioned to your team, we look forward to continued presentations in the fall.

I wish you much success as you move forward with the full launch of the Michigan Cyber Safety Initiative.

Sincerely,
