SECTION III WORK STATEMENT

Background

The purpose of this Contract is to obtain temporary employee services to assist in documenting the operational business and current systems process flows for the Michigan Office of Financial and Insurance Services (OFIS). This information will then be used by OFIS to prepare the specifications to develop a subsequent Invitation to Bid for the development of a system to replace the existing client-server O-Base system and two other non-networked systems. The O-Base system was largely developed in the late 1980's, and while it has been meticulously maintained and upgraded over the years, it can no longer support OFIS's growing needs and requirements in an increasingly web-based world. The two other systems were largely home-grown; in order to meet OFIS needs for concerted processes and consolidated reporting, these systems must be incorporated into the future re-written system.

The estimated hours to complete this project are not to exceed 1040 hours and will require 1 staff person with thorough knowledge of how web-based systems might be used to meet OFIS's needs and requirements.

The vendor selected to document the operational business and Obase system flows will be disqualified from being able to bid on the subsequent ITB for the development of the new replacement system.

The contract period will be May 12, 2008 to November 30, 2008. The State does not commit to procuring services in the quantities estimated or in any other amounts.

A. Problem Statement

There are three automated systems supporting OFIS's regulatory operational needs. The primary system, O-Base, was originally developed more than 15 years ago and has become antiquated. This client-server system operates on a LAN and is programmed with a PowerBuilder front-end running against an Oracle database. The two secondary systems support the regulatory needs of the Bank & Trust and the Credit Union Divisions. These standalone (non-client server) systems are written in Visual Basic and run against Access databases.

Due to current and anticipated workloads, existing DIT development staff requires assistance in documenting the business processes and O-Base system flows in anticipation of issuing an ITB for a complete system re-write.

The re-engineered and combined OFIS system will run on hardware that draws upon the capabilities of current hardware and software to simplify, streamline and improve the overall efficiency and effectiveness of the systems used to support OFIS regulatory functions. It is expected this will reduce processing time, reduce staff overhead required to support the system, reduce operating costs, increase functionality, and provide for faster turnaround for the customers served by OFIS.

B. Agency technical environment for the work

The agency's computing environment is based on networked Windows and Windows-based applications. Database applications are either Oracle or Access-based, with either PowerBuilder or Visual Basic front-ends. The use of web-based approaches in the re-write would be consistent with the direction of agency system development requests. The web environment for such applications includes the use of Windows and Unix-based operating systems, ASP, Java, .Net and Oracle or SQL databases.

C. Description of the requested work, including deliverables and knowledge transfer

The purpose of this work is to document and prepare high level business requirements of, (1) OFIS business processes and (2) automated systems functions (typically O-Base) used to carry out OFIS's operational and regulatory responsibilities. OFIS is responsible for the regulation of Blue Cross Blue Shield, 30 HMOs, 139 banks, 169 domestic insurance companies, 259 credit unions, 1,303 foreign insurance companies, 1,484 investment advisors, 2,178 securities broker-dealers, 7,521 consumer finance lenders, 123,486 insurance agents, and 107,991 securities agents.

It is important to complete this assessment phase, which will require OFIS staff input and assistance, as early as possible to avoid periods of heavy workload that begin in June and run through the end of the fiscal year.

The vendor selected to document the operational and business process flows for OFIS will be disqualified from being able to bid on the subsequent ITB for the development of the new replacement system.

D. Any specific regulations, requirements or expertise applicable, including specific background/security checks required

1. Contractors shall be subject to a security investigation as deemed appropriate by the OFIS.
2. Contractors shall be subject to the OFIS' security requirements related to equipment.
3. Contractors must agree to comply with all applicable laws regarding maintaining the confidentiality of information acquired by the contractor in the course of their work under this contract.
