

JILL O'SULLIVAN
VICE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Jill has worked at Schoolcraft College for the past 26 years and has held the office of Vice President and Chief Financial Officer since 2001. She is responsible for the finances and facilities at the College and has overseen the construction of the VisTaTech Center, the complete renovation and remodeling of the Waterman Campus Center and the Bradner Library including new HVAC, fire and security systems, and the construction of the Biomedical Technology Center scheduled to open for classes this Fall.

Jill is a C.P.A. and worked for Plante & Moran prior to coming to Schoolcraft College. She is the President of the Schoolcraft Development Authority, on the Board of the Michigan Community College Risk Management Authority, a member of the Schoolcraft College Foundation Investment Oversight Committee, and past-President of Michigan Community College Business Officer Association. She received her MBA from Wayne State University and BS from Michigan State University.