

KRISTI THOMPSON
DIRECTOR OF SERVICES DIVISION ,PURCHASING OPERATIONS, DMB

Kristi Thompson began her tenure in State government in February 2005 and currently holds the role of Director, Services Division in Purchasing Operations in the Department of Management and Budget.

Prior to joining the State of Michigan, Kristi worked as a supply chain consultant for Ernst and Young LLP for five and a half years developing and implementing cost savings initiatives for her clients. She also spent a year at Fed Ex in the capacity of Solutions Manager designing end to end logistics and fulfillment solutions for clients.

Kristi holds a Bachelor of Arts in Communications from the University of Michigan and a Masters of Business Administration in Logistics and Operations Management from Michigan State University.