

MICHAEL LASLEY
DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL SERVICES, CITY OF FARMINGTON HILLS

Michael Lasley is the Director of Central Services for the City of Farmington Hills, Michigan. He manages information technology, centralized purchasing, telecommunications and mail services for the City and is a graduate of Saginaw Valley State University. Michael has twenty three years of public sector purchasing experience and has been instrument in developing several cooperative purchasing opportunities in the metro Detroit area. Recently he led a group of cities in the development of Michigan's first cooperative e-Procurement system called MITN. He received his certification as a professional public buyer (CPPB) in 1996, was the President of the Michigan Public Purchasing Officers Association (MPPOA) in 2002 and was its Purchasing Manager of the year in 1998. In 2004 he received the Marv Klang Award for his contributions to public purchasing in the State of Michigan.

Michael resides in Farmington with his wife and three teen aged daughters.