

Credit Union Organization Information Package

The following pages contain information on how to start a new, or “de novo” credit union. Article 3, Part 1 of the Michigan Credit Union Act, which addresses the origination of state-chartered credit unions, can be viewed here.

You should understand that all members of the credit union have an equal share of the institution. Any excess capital over the par share value that may be contributed by persons or organizations is "donated capital" and those persons or organizations would receive no additional return or ownership from it.

The amount of capital will determine the size of loans that can be made. The aggregate lending limit for any single member of a credit union is the greater of $20,000 or 25% of its net worth, which is the credit union's undivided earnings and reserves, not including the allowance for loan and lease losses. As you can see, until the credit union builds up net worth of over $80,000, no loans over $20,000 can be made, and the limit moves up by only 25 cents for every dollar of capital over that. This means it can be difficult for a startup credit union to make some new car loans, let alone home mortgages. As a credit union grows, larger and more complex loans types (credit cards, for instance) become more practical.

Michigan state-chartered credit unions are also required to have share (deposit) insurance from the National Credit Union Administration, and must therefore meet the NCUA's requirements as well.

Authorized by PA 215 of 2003, as amended. Required to organize a state-chartered credit union.

Re: Application for Permission to Organize a Credit Union

In response to your request, please find the enclosed Application for Permission to Organize a State-Chartered Credit Union and related reference materials. An original, signed application must be submitted to this office. Please refer to Article 3, Part 1 of the Michigan Credit Union Act, PA 215 of 2003, as amended, for the statutory criteria to be met in organizing a credit union.

Prior to filing an application with the Office of Financial and Insurance Regulation (OFIR), it is strongly recommended that the organizers of the proposed credit union meet with OFIR personnel to discuss the field of membership and operational concepts of the proposed credit union. Telephone (517) 241-9981 for an appointment.

Credit union membership is limited to persons who are members of a group(s), (a) of any size that have common bond of occupation, association, or religious affiliation; or (b) whose common bond is residence, employment, or place of religious worship within a geographic area; or (c) whose common bond is common interests, activities, or objectives.

Experience has shown there should be a potential for approximately 500 primary members in order to assure a reasonable chance of success, and to be of service to members. Smaller groups may be able to obtain credit union service by aligning with an existing credit union.

Applicants must provide information on the nature of the common bond, and the benefits to prospective members. Capable persons must be available to volunteer their time to serve as chairperson, vice-chairperson, treasurer, directors and committee members, as applicable.
