

2010 Michigan Computer and Television Takeback Program Descriptions by Brand

Select the brand of your computer or television to find information about the takeback recycling program provided by the manufacturer. Any television brand, including those not listed below, can go back to any takeback program. If you have a computer (or printer as of April 1, 2011) that is not on this list, check with your local Household Hazardous Waste (HHW) collection program to see if any E-waste recycling opportunities for that item are available in your community. Go to www.michigan.gov/deqreswastecontacts to find your local HHW collection program.

All manufacturers whose computers and televisions are sold to households and small businesses in Michigan are required to have free and convenient takeback recycling programs available to consumers. The takeback program descriptions included in this document are taken directly from the electronic device manufacturer registration forms found here: http://www.michigan.gov/documents/deq/dnre-sw-List Registered Manufacturers 311892 7.pdf

The Department of Natural Resources and Environment is not responsible for the accuracy of the information listed on their takeback program registration form. Please visit the manufacturer's takeback Web site for details on how to use their takeback recycling program. If you are having difficulty using their free and convenient takeback program, please contact the manufacturer.

Take-Back Description: 1) Since 2007 Sony's National Take Back Program has operated across the United States. The program entails over 275 locations nationwide that provide free recycling for anything branded "Sony." All the customer has to do is visit www.sony.com/green to locate nearest drop off location. The locations within Michigan are: Marquette, Orion, Lenox, Grand Rapids, and Saginaw. However, there might be a closer location using the zip code finder within the Web site that may better serve the customer. From these drop off locations ewaste is transported to an approved recycler who demanufactures the waste, in accordance to the highest environmental standards, down to the usable commodities. 2) Sony's Green Glove service is Premier In-home Delivery from Sony. Customer's that buy any 37" or larger BRAVIA LCD television Sony will deliver to your home, place in your room of choice, unpack it, set it up, and clean up the mess. Finally, your old TV will be removed from any room in your house and it will be hauled away and recycled in an environmental responsible manner. For details please visit: www.sony.com/green. 3) Sony's Mail Back Program for Michigan: Sony will contract to provide free take back services for electronic hardware in the state of Michigan. We may include products that Sony is not obligated to take back under the current Michigan legislation. Simply visit <http://sony.ecotakeback.com> to discover how the mail in program works. 4) Sony Trade in Program for Michigan: Sony has partnered with ecoNEW which now expands the reach of product categories that are accepted for trade in and very shortly will also add an additional way for customers to recycle, for free, their old electronics that do not qualify for a trade-in value. Additionally, all categories supported can be traded in via an online process that included free shipping into our trade-in center, or for an immediate credit or gift card, brought into a Sony Retail or Outlet Store. Categories that we now accept are any brand of laptops, cameras, camcorders, MP3 players, game systems, and cell phones. 5) Implement new programs, including events and cooperating with local governments, as needed to reach the non-binding ration of 60% weight recycled to weight sold.

HP will be using a collection network defined by our contracted vendor, MPC. Currently, the collection network will entail retailer locations and/ or municipal collection sites defined by MPC. See Attachment 1 for a list of retailer collection sites currently planned for use by MPC. (NOTE: the attachment contains the same sites listed here <http://www.materialsprocessing.com/takeback-michigan.html> ) These arrangements will enable HP to have a compliant program in Michigan.

Note: HP will still offer our existing Consumer Buyback program, that is, mailback program. However, HP will not list this program as one of our compliance programs for Michigan, because a five item limit per customer transaction conflicts with MI's limit of seven.

HP will be using a collection network defined by our contracted vendor, MPC. Currently, the collection network will entail retailer locations and/ or municipal collection sites defined by MPC. See Attachment 1 for a list of retailer collection sites currently planned for use by MPC. (NOTE: the attachment contains the same sites listed here <http://www.materialsprocessing.com/takeback-michigan.html> ) These arrangements will enable HP to have a compliant program in Michigan.

Note: HP will still offer our existing Consumer Buyback program, that is, mailback program. However, HP will not list this program as one of our compliance programs for Michigan, because a five item limit per customer transaction conflicts with MI's limit of seven.

Take-Back Information: The Nokia Recycling Program (NRP) consists of a mail back system designed to be free of charge and easily accessible to the consumer. The NRP is built upon Nokia's existing cell phone recycling program. Nokia has engaged voluntarily in the collection and responsible recycling of cell phones in the USA for over 6 years. Currently we operate over 5000 collection points in 85 countries around the world. The primary system of collection employed across the USA is a web-based mail back system that allows the consumer to print a prepaid postage label which may be applied to a container for easy, cost-free shipment of the device to Nokia's recycling partners. Key features of the NRP include: Consumers do not have to pay a separate fee at the time of recycling to recycle used computer equipment under Nokia's NRP. Nokia provides for the collection from a consumer of any used computer or cellular device that bears the Nokia brand. Nokia provides for the collection of Nokia computer equipment that is reasonably convenient and available to consumers in Michigan, and designed to meet the collection needs of consumers in this state. Consumers can find out specifically how and where to return computer equipment at <http://www.nokiausa.com/recycle>

Take-Back Description: 1) Since 2007 Sony's National Take Back Program has operated across the United States. The program entails over 275 locations nationwide that provide free recycling for anything branded "Sony." All the customer has to do is visit www.sony.com/green to locate nearest drop off location. The locations within Michigan are: Marquette, Orion, Lenox, Grand Rapids, and Saginaw. However, there might be a closer location using the zip code finder within the Web site that may better serve the customer. From these drop off locations ewaste is transported to an approved recycler who demanufactures the waste, in accordance to the highest environmental standards, down to the usable commodities. 2) Sony's Green Glove service is Premier In-home Delivery from Sony. Customer's that buy any 37" or larger BRAVIA LCD television Sony will deliver to your home, place in your room of choice, unpack it, set it up, and clean up the mess. Finally, your old TV will be removed from any room in your house and it will be hauled away and recycled in an environmental responsible manner. For details please visit: www.sony.com/green. 3) Sony's Mail Back Program for Michigan: Sony will contract to provide free take back services for electronic hardware in the state of Michigan. We may include products that Sony is not obligated to take back under the current Michigan legislation. Simply visit <http://sony.ecotakeback.com> to discover how the mail in program works. 4) Sony Trade in Program for Michigan: Sony has partnered with ecoNEW which now expands the reach of product categories that are accepted for trade in and very shortly will also add an additional way for customers to recycle, for free, their old electronics that do not qualify for a trade-in value. Additionally, all categories supported can be traded in via an online process that included free shipping into our trade-in center, or for an immediate credit or gift card, brought into a Sony Retail or Outlet Store. Categories that we now accept are any brand of laptops, cameras, camcorders, MP3 players, game systems, and cell phones. 5) Implement new programs, including events and cooperating with local governments, as needed to reach the non-binding ration of 60% weight recycled to weight sold.

HP will be using a collection network defined by our contracted vendor, MPC.

Currently, the collection network will entail retailer locations and/ or municipal collection sites defined by MPC. See Attachment 1 for a list of retailer collection sites currently planned for use by MPC. (NOTE: the attachment contains the same sites listed here <http://www.materialsprocessing.com/takeback-michigan.html> ) These arrangements will enable HP to have a compliant program in Michigan.

Note: HP will still offer our existing Consumer Buyback program, that is, mailback program. However, HP will not list this program as one of our compliance programs for Michigan, because a five item limit per customer transaction conflicts with MI's limit of seven.
