9b. Please describe your Takeback program.

Apple has three ways for customers to recycle their unwanted electronic devices. For those customers who desire to return their products directly to Apple's recycler, we have a mail back program that allows the customer to go to www.apple.com and print a shipping label that allows for the free shipping and free recycling of their device by Apple's third-party certified recycler. For those customers who do not require their device sent directly to Apple's recycler, we have numerous drop off locations. Finally, Apple also holds an annual collection event. The final decision on holding the event is made early every calendar year.
