

Earth Day Activities

General Motors Flint Metal Center, General Motors Flint Assembly, and Dillon Elementary

General Motors Flint Metal Center and General Motors Flint Assembly celebrates Earth Day with an annual visit to Dillon Elementary. Employees do a demonstration and experiment to show students how GM's wastewater treatment plant separates oily wastewater. Students are broken-up into groups to discuss environmental stewardship and then are expected to report back to the group on the discussion they had.

