

Eaton Rapids High School Partnership

General Motors Lansing Grand River Assembly and Eaton Rapids High School

General Motors Lansing Grand River Assembly continued its partnership with Eaton Rapids High School by teaching local high school students and educators about the health of our rivers. GM employees were able to help students perform chemical tests as well as study macro invertebrates so the students could determine the impacts on local rivers.

