

Rain Barrel Workshop

ADAC Automotive and the West Michigan Environmental Action Council

ADAC Automotive partnered with the West Michigan Environmental Action Council to host a rain barrel workshop for associates and their families for home use. Approximately 15 barrels were made during the event and volunteers were able to take their own barrel home that day. This project provides a “green” source of water in times of conservation or drought and provides a ready supply of water for home gardens.

