

Earth Day Tales

April 6, 2013

10:00 to 11:00 am

Leslie Science & Nature Center

1831 Traver Road

Ann Arbor, Michigan 48105

Celebrate Earth Day with tales about how you can do your part to care for the planet. Children will also plant seeds and use recycled items to create a work of art. Ages: 1-5. Caregiver required. $2/child. For more information visit the Leslie Science & Nature Center's Web site at www.leslieSNC.org, or call 734-997-1553.

Organizations:

Leslie Science & Nature Center

The Environmental Education Network of Washtenaw

Earth is Our Home

April 11, 18, & 25, 2013

1:00 to 2:30 pm

Leslie Science & Nature Center

1831 Traver Road

Ann Arbor, Michigan 48105

Our planet is so amazing that one Earth Day just isn't enough! We're going to devote the entire month to learning about why our planet is so special. We'll take a look at far away places and investigate some unique animals that share this home with us. Ages: Ages 4-5, caregiver not required. $33 for all three sessions. For more information visit the Leslie Science & Nature Center's Web site at www.leslieSNC.org, or call 734-997-1553.

Organizations: Leslie Science & Nature Center and The Environmental Education Network of Washtenaw

Global Youth Service Day

April 20, 2013

Saturday, 10:00 am to 1:00 pm

Waterloo Recreation Area

16345 McClure Road

Chelsea, Michigan 48118

Join us in pulling invasive garlic mustard to keep it from invading a beautiful woodland. Bring your children and help us celebrate Global Youth Service Day and Earth Day! Meet at the park headquarters at 16345 McClure Road in Chelsea. For more information, visit the Department of Natural Resources Web site at www.michigan.gov/dnr.

Organization: Michigan Department of Natural Resources