Michigan Air Pollution Control Laws and Rules

The state statutes and rules pertaining to air pollution control are administered by the Air Quality Division of the Michigan Department of Environmental Quality. These statutes and rules are identified as Parts 1, 3, 55, 57, 59, 61, 63, and 65 of the Michigan Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Act, Act 451, PA of 1994, and the Air Pollution Control Rules, respectively. You can obtain paper or electronic copies of the state statutes and rules.

The Michigan Air Pollution Control Laws and Rules are available via the Internet. The address is www.michigan.gov/deqair. Click on "Laws & Rules."

The cost for a paper copy of portions of Act 451 related to air pollution control and the Air Pollution Control Rules is $18.00 plus shipping and handling. If you have any questions about the statutes and rules, contact the Air Quality Division at (517) 373-7023.

To purchase the statutes and rules, mail the completed order form and check to:
