

DHS Budget division names Nicole Dennis new Grant Management Section manager

The DHS Budget division is pleased to welcome Nicole Dennis as the new Grant Management Section manager beginning July 9, 2012.

Originally from the Lansing area, Nicole is very excited to be returning home after six years with the federal government working in grant monitoring and budget planning for the U.S. Department of Justice and the U.S. Bureau of Land Management. Her experience includes solicitation and review of grant proposals from state, tribal, local, and nonprofit entities, in addition to post-award monitoring and fiscal reviews. While at the Department of Justice, Nicole worked specifically on grants to support the implementation of the Violence Against Women Act and innovations in community policing efforts.

Prior to her work with the federal government, Nicole earned a master's degree in Global Finance, Trade and Economic Integration as well as a J.D. from the University of Denver.
