

Civil Service Commission approves revised NERE Employment Preference Plan

The Civil Service Commission has approved the Department of Human Services proposed revision of the Non-Exclusively Represented Employees (NERE) Employment Preference Plan.

The revised plan, which is effective May 18, 2012, can be found on DHS-NET under the Human Resources Tab under “What’s New”. The DHS Administrative Handbook will be changed in the near future to reflect this newly approved plan.