

REINVENTING Mi RETIREMENT

achieving financial security to last a lifetime

October 5, 2016

ELGA Credit Union, Burton, MI

8:00 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.

Free Financial Quickchecks will be available from 8:00 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. A QuickCheck is a non-commercial, one-on-one financial counseling session offered by appointment during this program

Kickoff Keynote: Aisha Taylor

Money expert and founder of FNPhenomenal talks about debt, savings, and fun.

Retirement Income Planning: AARP

In this program, AARP will help you understand what you need to do to provide enough income to ensure a secure and dignified retirement.

“Who Gets Grandma’s Yellow Pie Plate”- Inheriting Memories:

MSU Extension

The transfer of non-titled property such as photographs and other family heirlooms often creates more challenges among family members than the transfer of titled property. Learn how to deal with some of the issues that may arise.

Identity Theft Prevention: The Michigan Attorney General's Office

Identity theft is one of the biggest financial threats we face. The Attorney General's Office will provide information on how to prevent identity theft and how to handle the situation if you've been caught by a “phisher.”

Refreshments Provided

Additional exciting topics are still being scheduled.

The Securing Mi Financial Future Program is made possible with grant funds received from

Community Bankers of Michigan

www.MI.gov/SMFF

Find MIDIFS on Facebook and Twitter for updates and information.

