SPRING FLING

BRIGHTON RECREATION AREA

May 3rd, 2009 • Bishop Lake Complex • 12:00 pm to 5:00 pm

An Outdoor Recreation Event

More than 20 outdoor clubs, businesses and agencies will be on hand for the 4th annual Spring Fling at Brighton Recreation Area. The groups will provide free hands-on activities, allowing visitors to engage in a wide variety of outdoor experiences. From learning to paddle a canoe to live birds of prey, both young and old will be entertained by Michigan's Outdoors.

Participants in this year's event include: US Coast Guard, Howell Nature Center, Michigan Mountain Biking Association, Lansing Oar & Paddle Club, Michigan Geocaching Organization, Project Fish and many more.

ADMISSION

Admission to the event is free, but any vehicle entering the park will need a State Park Motor Vehicle Permit.

DIRECTIONS

From I-96 take exit 147 and go west approximately 6 miles, drive south on Chilson road for 1.5 miles and drive east on Bishop Lake road approximately 1.5 miles to the Bishop Lake Complex.
