Kitty Donohoe

Saturday, June 30, 7PM

Saginaw Bay Visitor Center Lawn Stage

Free Performance—Bring a Lawn Chair

$10 Recreation Passport required for entry
(annual permit)

Kitty Donohoe, musician and storyteller, presents a new program of Great Lakes folk songs and tales that celebrate lighthouses and their keepers, sailors, fishermen and some of the men and women who have lived on the wild inland coasts. Kitty brings these accountings to life with old and new songs, stories, and poems. She accompanies herself on guitar, concertina, and hammered and mountain dulcimers.

For more information stop by the Saginaw Bay Visitor Center or call (989) 667-0717. In the event of inclement weather, the concert will be held inside visitor center auditorium.

Tonight's performance is made possible through donations made to the Friends of Bay City State Recreation Area.

Next Message from the Marsh:
Saturday, July 7, 7PM, "Dulcimer Strings",
Broken Glass String Band.

Funding for Message from the Marsh is made possible by the Michigan Council for the Arts and Cultural Affairs, the Saginaw Arts & Enrichment Commission & the Friends of Bay City State Rec. Area. Donations will be taken following each concert.
