

Holland State Park

Camper Cabins

The image shows two wooden cabins on a sandy beach. The cabin in the foreground is labeled 'WHITE TAIL' and has a white door and a porch. In front of it is a blue picnic table and a fire pit made of corrugated metal. Another similar cabin is visible in the background. The background consists of bare trees under a cloudy sky.

Both Whitetail and Beacon cabins are available year round

Fee: $60 Per Night October 1-April 30

$80 Per Night May 1-September 30 when restrooms are open

Both are Universally Accessible

Both Cabins are set up alike with fire ring, table, grill and similar interiors

They have a front porch and ramp

Shelves. Fridge, toaster, coffee pot, and microwave

Dining table and benches

Ceiling fan and fire alarms

Two bedrooms

One that will sleep 4

One that sleeps 3

Clothes hangers and night stands

Curtains on the bedroom windows

Door curtains and electric heat

Both have awesome views of the light house and the channel

Come Join us for a night

Thank you!