

The Friends of Bay City State Recreation Area
Presents

MESSAGE FROM THE MARSH
A Cultural Arts Tour focusing on Michigan's Great Outdoors!

Sweetwater Seas Lee Murdock

Music that speaks to the Sailing Spirit in us all!

Saturday, June 23, 7PM

BAY CITY STATE RECREATION AREA

Saginaw Bay Visitor Center lawn stage

Experience the history of the Great Lakes maritime era through legends, tales and songs about shipwrecks, and lighthouse ghosts! Lee Murdock's music speaks to people who live, work and play around the Great Lakes today! Murdock's songs create an unforgettable image of commerce and recreation inspired by the Great History of the Saginaw Bay and our unique freshwater seas!

FREE CONCERT

$10 State Park Passport required for entry
(annual vehicle permit)

For more information stop by the Saginaw Bay Visitor Center or call (989) 667-0717.

Bring Your Own Seating. In the case of bad weather concert will take place in the visitor center auditorium.

Following the concert there will be an opportunity to meet Lee and purchase some of his award winning recordings.

★
★
★ Next Message From the Marsh
★ Saturday, June 30, Kitty Donohoe,
★ "Lighthouses & Legends" featuring stories,
★ songs, and folk instruments which help share
★ the Great Lake's history!
★ Funding for Message from the Marsh is made ★ possible through donations made to the ★ Friends of Bay City State Recreation Area and
★ a grant from the Michigan Council for the Arts
★ & Cultural Affairs and the Saginaw Arts & En★ richment Commission.
★
★

Great Lakes, Great Times, Great Outdoors

www.michigan.gov/dnr