Michigan State Waterways Commission to meet July 12 in Lansing

The Michigan State Waterways Commission (MSWC) will hold a special meeting on Friday, July 12, 2013. The meeting will be held at the Lansing Community College Conference Services, 5708 Cornerstone Drive, Lansing, MI, 48917. The public meeting begins at 9:00 a.m. The agenda includes one action item regarding a resolution for the proposed Eagle Lake boating access property acquisition. Eagle Lake is located in Southwest Michigan in Cass County.

The Michigan State Waterways Commission is an advisory group, created by Public Act 451 of 1994, Part 781, to address issues concerning public boating opportunities in the State of Michigan, including the acquisition, construction and maintenance of recreational harbors, channels, docking and launching facilities, administration of commercial docks in the Straits of Mackinac, and to advise on regulations and grant funding for the Great Lakes Harbors of Refuge.

For more information about this meeting, persons wishing to provide public comment on any boating-related issue, or persons needing accommodations to attend this meeting, contact Diane Munson, Parks and Recreation Division, Department of Natural Resources, at 517-241-0341 (TTY/TDD711 Michigan Relay Center for the hearing impaired), or visit the MSWC website at www.michigan.gov/dnr, under "Commissions, Boards and Committees." A copy of the agenda is also available on the website.

The Department of Natural Resources is committed to the conservation, protection, management, and accessible use and enjoyment of the state's natural resources, and related economic interests for current and future generations. For more information, go to www.michigan.gov/dnr.
