

Women's Hunter Education Safety Course!

Have you ever wanted to hunt but don't feel you have the knowledge necessary to enjoy the sport? Do you have firearms in your house that you are afraid to handle because you lack the knowledge to operate them properly? Do you enjoy being outside and would like a new outdoor activity to enjoy? Then this class is for you!

The Department of Natural Resources & Environment (DNRE), Becoming an Outdoors Woman Program is offering a Hunter Education Safety course just for women! The class will be held on Saturday, September 25, 2010 at the Demmer Shooting Center from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Home study will be required prior to this class – study materials will be sent out in advance to allow participants time to review the content.

During the afternoon, all participants will have opportunity to shoot .22 rifles and archery! All equipment will be provided including ammunition, eye and ear protection.

At the end of the day, you will complete the hunter education safety standard test and take home your certificate!

PLEASE BRING YOUR OWN SACK LUNCH!
BEVERAGES WILL BE PROVIDED!

This class is limited to 20 participants! Early registration is encouraged!
