

Introduction to Handgun Shooting

This class is designed to make the beginner feel at ease while learning the basic skills needed to safely handle and shoot a handgun. No prior shooting experience is required so bring a friend and try your hand at a new and exciting sport.

The class will be presented by NRA certified instructors in the comfort of the new Demmer Shooting Sports Education & Training Center on the campus of Michigan State University.

Participants will receive instruction in the following topics:

- Safe handling of revolvers and semi-automatic pistols.
- Ammunition fundamentals and safety.
- Basic fundamentals of shooting a revolvers and semi-automatic pistols.
- Discussion of various shooting sports activities and opportunities.
- How to select the firearm that best fits your interests or needs.

Participants will be shooting .22caliber revolvers and semi-automatic pistols while on the range. All firearms, ammunition, eye protection and hearing protection will be provided.
