

Women's Fly Fishing Workshop

July 24-26, 2009

Fly fishing has become very popular with women, it is quiet activity and you are in touch with the water and with nature. If you have longed to learn this art, this workshop is for you. The focus will be on instruction in fly fishing in a private setting. The small number of participants will allow plenty of time for personal, hands-on instruction. Equipment will be provided and you will have additional opportunities available on Sunday. All the guides for this workshop are Orvis-endorsed so you can be sure they will be top notch. This workshop will go rain or shine!

Reservations have been made at Cronk's Oakridge Motel. Rooms have two beds and you will share with one other woman. You may designate a roommate if you and a friend are attending together.

Great Lakes, Great Times, Great Outdoors

Check in will be 7-7:30 p.m., Friday, July 24 2009 at Cronk's Oakridge Restaurant with a get-acquainted party and beginning instruction.
