

If today is within...	and your registration date...	Then you need to...
October, November or December, 2010	is not due until January - September of 2011	Purchase a 2010 Reduced Annual Passport for $10 at the park, if you do not already have a 2010 motor vehicle permit.
	due in October, November or December of 2010	Purchase 2011 (blue) Recreation Passport for $10 at the park, or check yes on your vehicle registration to support the Recreation Passport when you renew your license plates!
January, 2011	is not due until February-September, 2011	Enjoy the parks all you want and check yes on your vehicle registration to support the Recreation Passport when you renew your license plates!
	was renewed in October - December (2011 expiration - orange) or January (2012 expiration - green) and you didn't check yes to support the Recreation Passport	You will need to purchase your 2011 (blue) or 2012 (green) Recreation Passport when you visit a park. The fee is $10 for either Passport when purchasing at a park in 2011, but will increase in following years, so make sure you check yes at the Secretary of State the next time you renew!
February, 2011	is not due until March-September, 2011	Enjoy the parks all you want and check yes on your vehicle registration to support the Recreation Passport when you renew your license plates!
	was renewed between October - December (2011 expiration - orange) or January or February (2012 expiration - green) and you didn't check yes to support the Recreation Passport	You will need to purchase your 2011 (blue) or 2012 (green) Recreation Passport when you visit a park. The fee is $10 for either Passport when purchasing at a park in 2011, but will increase in following years, so make sure you check yes at the Secretary of State the next time you renew!
March, 2011	is not due until April-September, 2011	Enjoy the parks all you want and check yes on your vehicle registration to support the Recreation Passport when you renew your license plates!
	was renewed between October - December (2011 expiration - orange) or January - March (2012 expiration - green) and you didn't check yes to support the Recreation Passport	You will need to purchase your 2011 (blue) or 2012 (green) Recreation Passport when you visit a park. The fee is $10 for either Passport when purchasing at a park in 2011, but will increase in following years, so make sure you check yes at the Secretary of State the next time you renew!
April, 2011	is not due until May-September, 2011	Enjoy the parks all you want and check yes on your vehicle registration to support the Recreation Passport when you renew your license plates!
	was renewed between October - December (2011 expiration - orange) or January - April (2012 expiration - green) and you didn't check yes to support the Recreation Passport	You will need to purchase your 2011 (blue) or 2012 (green) Recreation Passport when you visit a park. The fee is $10 for either Passport when purchasing at a park in 2011, but will increase in following years, so make sure you check yes at the Secretary of State the next time you renew!
May, 2011	is not due until June-September, 2011	Enjoy the parks all you want and check yes on your vehicle registration to support the Recreation Passport when you renew your license plates!
	was renewed between October - December (2011 expiration - orange) or January - May (2012 expiration - green) and you didn't check yes to support the Recreation Passport	You will need to purchase your 2011 (blue) or 2012 (green) Recreation Passport when you visit a park. The fee is $10 for either Passport when purchasing at a park in 2011, but will increase in following years, so make sure you check yes at the Secretary of State the next time you renew!
June, 2011	is not due until July-September, 2011	Enjoy the parks all you want and check yes on your vehicle registration to support the Recreation Passport when you renew your license plates!
	was renewed between October - December (2011 expiration - orange) or January - June (2012 expiration - green) and you didn't check yes to support the Recreation Passport	You will need to purchase your 2011 (blue) or 2012 (green) Recreation Passport when you visit a park. The fee is $10 for either Passport when purchasing at a park in 2011, but will increase in following years, so make sure you check yes at the Secretary of State the next time you renew!

If today is within...	and your registration date...	Then you need to...
July, 2011	is not due until August-September, 2011	Enjoy the parks all you want and check yes on your vehicle registration to support the Recreation Passport when you renew your license plates!
	was renewed between October - December (2011 expiration - orange) or January - July (2012 expiration - green) and you didn't check yes to support the Recreation Passport	You will need to purchase your 2011 (blue) or 2012 (green) Recreation Passport when you visit a park. The fee is $10 for either Passport when purchasing at a park in 2011, but will increase in following years, so make sure you check yes at the Secretary of State the next time you renew!
August, 2011	is not due until September, 2011	Enjoy the parks all you want and check yes on your vehicle registration to support the Recreation Passport when you renew your license plates!
	was renewed between October - December (2011 expiration - orange) or January - August (2012 expiration - green) and you didn't check yes to support the Recreation Passport	You will need to purchase your 2011 (blue) or 2012 (green) Recreation Passport when you visit a park. The fee is $10 for either Passport when purchasing at a park in 2011, but will increase in following years, so make sure you check yes at the Secretary of State the next time you renew!
September, 2011	was renewed between October - December (2011 expiration - orange) or January - September (2012 expiration - green) and you didn't check yes to support the Recreation Passport	You will need to purchase your 2011 (blue) or 2012 (green) Recreation Passport when you visit a park. The fee is $10 for either Passport when purchasing at a park in 2011, but will increase in following years, so make sure you check yes at the Secretary of State the next time you renew!
October, 2011	was renewed between November - December (2011 expiration - orange) or January - October (2012 expiration - green) and you didn't check yes to support the Recreation Passport	You will need to purchase your 2011 (blue) or 2012 (green) Recreation Passport when you visit a park. The fee is $10 for either Passport when purchasing at a park in 2011, but will increase in following years, so make sure you check yes at the Secretary of State the next time you renew!
November, 2011	was renewed December (2011 expiration - orange) or January - November (2012 expiration - green) and you didn't check yes to support the Recreation Passport	You will need to purchase your 2011 (blue) or 2012 (green) Recreation Passport when you visit a park. The fee is $10 for either Passport when purchasing at a park in 2011, but will increase in following years, so make sure you check yes at the Secretary of State the next time you renew!
December, 2011	was renewed January - December (2012 expiration - green) and you didn't check yes to support the Recreation Passport	You will need to purchase your 2012 (green) Recreation Passport when you visit a park. The fee is $10 for either Passport when purchasing at a park in 2011, but will increase in following years, so make sure you check yes at the Secretary of State the next time you renew!
January, 2012	was renewed February - December (2012 expiration - green) or January (2013 expiration - silver) and you didn't check yes to support the Recreation Passport	You will need to purchase your 2012 (green) or 2013 (silver) Recreation Passport when you visit a park. The fee is $10 for 2012 or $15 for 2013 when purchasing the RP at a park in 2012, but only $10 when purchased through the Secretary of State the next time you renew!