

40. In other jurisdictions, where out-of-state renewables are qualified to meet RPS requirements, how are the REC markets structured to accommodate out-of-state RECs?

There are various renewable energy credit registries in the United States that have renewable energy credit transfer mechanisms in place. Information about transfers to and from MIRECS (Michigan Renewable Energy Certification System) can be found at www.mirecs.org.