THIS IS A PUBLIC RECORD, COPIES OF WHICH ARE SENT, UPON REQUEST, TO ANY INTERESTED PERSON.

Note – It is a violation of Michigan law for a professional fundraiser to:

- Solicit or receive contributions, conduct a charitable sales promotion, or sell memberships in Michigan on behalf of a charitable organization that is not registered with this office or exempt from registration;
- Fail to provide verification of current license status to any charitable organization with which it is contracted for Michigan solicitations.

If an organization with which you are doing business is not currently registered to solicit contributions in Michigan or does not have a determination of exemption from the registration requirement, the organization should be directed to our website to file the Initial Solicitation Registration Form or, if applicable, the Request for Exemption.
