I learned That Traditions are things that my family does every year. My Tradition is Easter. I'm with my family and I do it every year. I do it because you can decorate your house and paint Easter eggs. We paint birds on the eggs to make it look like they hatched. My dad gets bags of candy and hides them. Unfortunately we can't never find the last one.

Many traditions that people celebrate. Some traditions are fun, but even if I don't celebrate some of my friends traditions, nobody should judge anybody's traditions. On my Ornament, I drew a Poinsettia. The Poinsettia is a Hispanic decorative plant with large red, white, or pink leaves that look like flower petals. I drew a Poinsettia because my mom and dad are from Mexico, and I love Mexico!

That not every one celebrates the same traditions and that they are all different. For example, one of the traditions that my mom, brothers Erik, Manolo, My Dad and me celebraite every year is christmas, but we might celabrate it a littel diffrent than you. I'm saying this because every year my family does a sort of a christmas game. The game that we usally always play before christmas night is that we put the name of every one in my family on a piece of paper and every one picks a piece of paper and whose ever peorsons name they have on the piece of paper they have to buy them a christmas present. once we buy the present we put it under the christmas tree, which is regular christmas.

I learned that at New Years we got a feast and give money to family and friends and at night my family and I pray. If you make a bad choice you will be cursed to make bad choices for the next new year. If you make a good choice you will be cursed that you will be good for one year. When New Year's is over we get lots and lots and lots of money. It is just like we are rich.

Many traditions are different and fun to celebrate. My tradition is hanging up stockings beside my tree and wait for them to be filled with candy and small toys on Christmas Eve night. We go to sleep at exactly 8:00p.m. While we are sleeping Santa claus fills our stockings. We get up the next morning open our gifts get our small toys and candy out of the stockings. After that we gather around the tree and sing Joy to the World.

The first time I went was three years ago and we go to the church "Our lady of Laking." I have to respect Jesus because I have to receive Communion to eat the body of Jesus, the bread, and the blood of Jesus, the wine.

That many people don't have the same traditions. And you don't need to because it is what you do and you don't need to be judged by that. Somebody celebrates Haloween and you say you can't celebrate that is not the same as me. " People celebrate diffrent tradition. You can't say that, ok I'll do the same thing." That may not be your tradition. Maybe your mom and dad tells you so that is what I learned of many tradition. One of my traditions on my ornament was that me and my mom bake cookies. We hand them out to our family and friends. We make christmas cookies that are shaped like christmas trees and santa claus. We also make cinnamon cookies. That is my famil's tradition.

I learned that traditions are things that my family does with each other during the year. like my family celebrates chrismas.

You get to hang up ornaments of your own. The ornaments you make are hung up on a Chrismas tree.

We all gather up in the family room. We gulp up something hot and roasted. I have to wait till everyone is done.

Then everyone opens presents just before Grandpa hangs up the angle on top of the Chrismas tree.

We all laugh and giggle and show off all the presents we got. Santa, Mom, Grandpa, Dad, Grandma, and other people play outside after all the fun crazy activities we have!.

in the bible says about two birthdays in both birthdays, died two innocent people. Here is one of the birthdays that in the bible, says in Matthew 14:6-8, 10, "When Herod's birthday was being celebrated the daughter of He-ro-di-as danced at his birthday and pleased her so much that he promised her with a pressent to give her whatever she asked. Then she was under her mothers coaching, said, Give me here upon a platter the head of John the Baptist. *The birthday celebration was born in the magic and religion, not cristian. The people from greece they belive that any person had the spirit protecter, and this Spirit was present in the day of his born. That is why they cellebrate birthdays.

That traditions are occasions that my family and I can spend time together. Also, we can show we love each other by puting up a prickly tree and have a beautiful dinner. We eat chicken, potatoes, rolls, and corn. After we eat, we watch a movie of each of our choice. Last year my sister Emily chose Monsters Incorporated. After the movie we all go sleep and in the morning there are presents wrapped in different wrapping paper such as.., Reindeer, santa, elves, and green and red types of wrapping paper. We open the presents and when we are done, opening every single one we play with them.

about many facinating and exciting different traditions. I like when some people said they go to their grandma's house or Mackinac on Thanksgiving or Christmas. My Tradition is that we like to put our presents from biggest to smallest. Then we pick a certain person to pass out all the presents. Last, the youngest person opens their present first. Finally, we play with our toys and enjoy the rest of the day. On my ornament, I put a present with different painted bright colors. My tradition is on the back.
