

Entrance to Mining Galleries

A towering mining head frame of timber and a massive piece of float copper mark the entrance to the Mining Galleries. An alcove to the left features state geologist Douglass Houghton and the discovery of copper and William Burt, inventor of the solar compass, and the discovery of iron ore.