

Lumber Baron's Mansion

The Lumber Baron's Mansion is a recreation of the façade of the home built in Muskegon by Charles H. Hackley in 1889. The home, with its fine architectural details and stained glass, still stands in Muskegon. Inside the foyer, portraits of lumber barons tell more about the era.