Respondent.

Issued and entered
This 1 day of August, 2016

NOTICE AND ORDER TO CEASE AND DESIST

Julia Dale, the Director of the Corporations, Securities & Commercial Licensing Bureau (the "Administrator"), pursuant to her statutory authority and responsibility to administer and enforce the Michigan Uniform Securities Act (2002), 2008 PA 551, as amended, MCL 451.2101 et seq ("Securities Act"), hereby orders Anthony G. Manaia ("Respondent") to cease and desist from failing to promptly file information updates regarding judgment liens to his investment adviser representative registration, and to cease and desist from filing false information with the administrator, contrary to the Securities Act. Respondent is notified of the opportunity to request a hearing in this matter.

I. BACKGROUND

A. The Respondent

1. Anthony G. Manaia (CRD#1506665) is an individual who resides in the State of Michigan.
2. Respondent has been registered pursuant to the Securities Act in some capacity through multiple firms since in or around 1986. Mr. Manaia is currently registered as an investment adviser representative and is associated with Manaia Capital Management, Inc. (IARD#155333), a Michigan-registered investment adviser firm. Respondent's registration is conditional pursuant to a Stipulation and Order Approving Conditional Registration and Resolving Notice and Order to Cease and Desist, dated February 12, 2014 (Exhibit 1).

B. Findings of Fact

1. The Bureau conducted an investigation of Respondent's Activities.
2. On or around November 6, 2014, Respondent became subject to a civil judgment in favor of The Huntington National Bank in the amount of $106,918.13; a lien was filed with the Oakland County Circuit Court on or around January 15, 2015. (Exhibit 2 – Notice of Judgment Lien).
3. Correspondence from Respondent dated December 1, 2014 and an affidavit dated December 20, 2014 were received for filing by the Oakland County Circuit Court on December 30, 2014. (Exhibit 3 – Respondent's Letter to Oakland County Circuit Court). The correspondence disputed the validity of the judgment, but nonetheless recognized the judgment's existence.
4. Respondent filed an update to his Form U4 investment adviser representative registration on or around August 24, 2015. (Exhibit 4 – August 24, 2015 Manaia Form U4 Excerpt, Question 14M). The application specifically asked if Respondent was subject to any unsatisfied judgments or liens, and Respondent answered in the negative. Respondent denied that he was the subject of any unsatisfied judgments or liens, notwithstanding the fact that he was or should have been aware¹ of an unsatisfied judgment or lien, as evidenced by his December 2014 correspondence to the Oakland County Circuit Court (Exhibit 3).
5. Respondent, after receiving an inquiry about the undisclosed judgment from the Bureau (Exhibit 5 – Bureau Correspondence to Respondent), subsequently filed another update to his Form U4 investment adviser representative registration on or around April 8, 2016 to disclose the unsatisfied judgment or lien (Exhibit 6 – April 8, 2016 Form U4 Excerpt). The registration information was inaccurate for over 17 months due to Respondent's failure to disclose the judgment or lien.
6. Respondent, through counsel, stated that he first learned of the judgment or lien when the Bureau inquired about it in March of 2016 (Exhibit 7 – Correspondence from Attorney Kowalsky), notwithstanding the fact that

¹ Respondent's attorney also acknowledged that Respondent's bank account had been garnished by the judgment creditor, further undermining the assertion that he did not know he was subject to an unsatisfied judgment or lien. (Exhibit 7).

Respondent had submitted correspondence to the Oakland County Circuit Court acknowledging the judgment's existence in December 2014 (Exhibit 3).

7. Respondent was required by the Stipulation and Order Approving Conditional Registration (Exhibit 1, page 7, paragraph 22) to submit quarterly reports to the Bureau that included a balance sheet listing assets and liabilities. Respondent failed to disclose the judgment lien on his balance sheet in his latest quarterly filing on or around January 25, 2016 (Exhibit 8 – January 2016 Quarterly Report) even though his correspondence to the Oakland County Circuit Court indicates that he was aware of its existence at the time the report was filed.
8. Respondent, in the same quarterly report, represented that his Form U4 was accurate and current, which as discussed in paragraph I.B.4 herein, was not true at the time. (Exhibit 8). Respondent's representation that his Form U4 was accurate in the January 2016 quarterly report was false or misleading at the time the statement was made.

II. RELEVANT STATUTORY PROVISIONS

1. Section 406 of the Securities Act, MCL 451.2406, states in part:
 - (1) A person shall register as a broker-dealer, agent, investment adviser, or investment adviser representative by filing an application and a consent to service of process complying with section 611 and paying the fee specified in section 410 and any reasonable fees charged by the designee of the administrator for processing the filing. Each application must contain both of the following:
 - (a) The information or record required for the filing of a uniform application.
 - (b) If requested by the administrator, any other financial or other information or record that the administrator determines is appropriate.
 - (2) If the information or record contained in an application that is filed under subsection (1) is or becomes inaccurate or incomplete in any material respect, the registrant shall promptly file a correcting amendment.

2. Section 505 of the Securities Act, MCL 451.2505 states:

A person shall not make or cause to be made, in a record that is used in an action or proceeding or filed under this act, a statement that, at the time and in the light of the circumstances under which it is made, is false or misleading in a material respect, or, in connection with the statement, omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statement made, in the light of the circumstances under which it was made, not false or misleading.

III. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. Respondent Anthony G. Manaia failed to promptly update his Form U4 investment adviser representative registration application to reflect a judgment or lien, contrary to section 406(2) of the Securities Act, MCL 451.2406(2). Manaia became subject to a judgment or lien on or around November 7, 2014, acknowledged the existence of the judgment or lien in a letter dated December 1, 2014, and then failed to disclose the judgment or lien on his Form U4 until April 8, 2016.
2. Respondent Anthony G. Manaia filed false or misleading information with the Bureau, in violation of section 505 of the Securities Act, MCL 451.2505, by engaging in the following activities:
 - a. Respondent Anthony G. submitted a required balance sheet with required quarterly reports that did not disclose an unsatisfied judgment or lien. The judgment or lien has existed since in or around November 2014; however, the most recent quarterly balance sheet filed in or around January 2016 did not disclose the unsatisfied judgment or lien.
 - b. Respondent Anthony G. Manaia submitted correspondence, through counsel, which identified that Respondent had not been aware of the judgment or lien until April of 2016, when in fact, Respondent had submitted correspondence to the court that issued the order in or around December 2014 that acknowledged the existence of the judgment, even if Respondent disputed the judgment's validity.
 - c. Respondent Anthony G. Manaia represented in a January 2016 quarterly report that his Form U4 investment adviser representative registration was accurate and current, which it was not, as is discussed in paragraph I.B.4 and I.B.8, herein.

IV. ORDER

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, pursuant to section 604 of the Securities Act, MCL 451.2604, that:

An individual convicted of violating a rule or order under this act may be fined, but shall not be imprisoned, if the individual did not have knowledge of the rule or order.
