

Power of Parents

(Refrigerator door opening)

Boy 1: Hey guys, my dad has some beer in the fridge. You want one?

Boy 2: Nah, I'll pass. My parents told me that alcohol is only for adults.

(Music)

Woman: Believe it or not, studies show that children refuse alcohol when underage drinking is discouraged in the home. So parents keep talking - your kids are actually listening. Remember we all lose when kids booze.
