INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILING A COORDINATING AGENCY APPEAL

HOW TO FILE A COMPLAINT

- A. When you receive a Recipient Rights Investigation Report form in response to your complaint, read it carefully. If you have any questions about what it says, ask your rights advisor to explain it.
- B. If you DO NOT accept the findings or remedial action plan described on the Report form as a fair solution to your complaint, you should complete this form by the date indicated.

WHAT WILL HAPPEN

After you give the completed form to your Coordinating Agency Rights Consultant, he or she may ask you for additional information. The Rights Consultant will then investigate your complaint and try to develop a fair solution.

Within 30 working days of the date your Coordinating Agency Rights Consultant receives this form, he or she will give you a written Coordinating Agency Investigation Report. That report will have a summary of what the Rights Consultant found while investigating your appeal. It will have a proposed solution (action plan) if your appeal was found to require action.

YOUR RIGHT TO FURTHER APPEAL

When you receive the Coordinating Agency Investigation Report, you will have 15 working days to decide to accept the findings and/or action plan proposed by the Coordinating Agency Rights Consultant, or to file an appeal. If you do not appeal within 15 working days, this indicates/means you have accepted the investigation report.

The Department of Licensing and Regulatory Affairs will not discriminate against any individual or group because of race, sex, religion, age, national origin, color, marital status, disability or political beliefs. If you need assistance with reading, writing, hearing, etc., under the Americans with Disabilities Act, you may make your needs known to this agency.
