Holiday hours Less Than Full Time Employees – Holiday hours are calculated using employee's average hours over the last six pay periods, rounded to the nearest tenth of an hour. This average can be found on the "EMP INFO" tab for less than full-time employees.

Plan A hours – These hours should be recorded on the timesheet with the PLNA hours type.

FMLA hours - All hours approved under FMLA must be entered using the various "FM" hours types.

TA Box on the Data Collection screen, Selection Tab - The letters in this box indicate the status of the timesheet as follows:

Blank Field = No action has been taken on the timesheet.

Y = Timesheet has been entered and saved.

S = Timesheet has been submitted.

A = Timesheet has been approved by supervisor.

If employees submit paper timesheets: (this process only)

1. All timesheets must be signed by both the employee and their supervisor.
2. All corrections to timesheets must be in red ink and initialed by both the employee and their supervisor.
3. All overtime and annual leave must be initialed by supervisor.
4. All sick leave must be accompanied by a reason. It is sufficient to record "Self-ill, child-ill, "dr. appt.", or "dental appt".
