

BIG LESSONS from a Small Town AUTHOR

BOOK SIGNING

BILL SCHUETTE

November 10 • Library of Michigan • 5:00pm-7:00pm

Our earliest lessons come from those closest to us — our families, our neighbors and our hometowns.

In this candid, sometimes poignant book, Michigan's Attorney General shares the lessons, highlights and challenges of his journey.

“Bill has an amazing story to tell — one of great service to others. This book reminds us all how truly important it is to give back and to return to the values one learns right in their hometown. George and I are proud to call Bill a friend, and more importantly, a true Point of Light.”

- BARBARA BUSH,
Former First Lady

“Bill Schuette writes compellingly about the life lessons learned growing up in a small, Midwestern community. You will be encouraged and challenged by stories of those who lead effectively by giving and serving selflessly — much like Bill himself.”

- BETSY DEVOS,
Businesswoman and Philanthropist

“Whether he is working with local police chiefs or police officers on the beat, Bill Schuette is passionate about serving people. That is what is important to me - serving others. Big Lessons is all about the importance of servant leadership and how it translates into making a difference in the lives of the people we serve.”

- JAMES E. CRAIG,
*Chief of Police,
Detroit Police Department*
