The FBI's Law Enforcement Officers Killed and Assaulted (LEOKA) program is a nation-wide law enforcement safety initiative. The program is designed to assist law enforcement managers, trainers and personnel in the identification of training issues for the purpose of preventing the deaths and or serious injuries of law enforcement personnel. This program is based on more than twenty-years of research by the FBI in collaboration with local, state, and federal law enforcement agencies throughout the United States. Demographic and behavioral descriptors for victim officers and the offenders were developed and will be presented. The findings and resulting safety training issues will also be presented. Topics will include:

Officer Safety

Will to Survive – Will to Win

Awareness & Street Survival

The Deadly Mix – An Integrative Approach

Foot Pursuits – Traffic Stops

Mental Preparation for Street Survival

Controlling Arrest Situations & Handcuffing

National FBI LEOKA Program & Resources

Street Combat Veterans

LEOKA Research & Statistical Information

Post Critical Incident Stress
