

Martin Luther King, Jr. Day of Service

January 19, 2009

2009 MLK Day in Michigan

Remember, Celebrate, Act.

We invite you to join us and others across America in a day of service on Monday, January 19th to honor the memory of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Together we can clean up neighborhoods, feed the hungry, tutor those in need, and more.

How can you participate?

The Michigan Community Service Commission and our partners, the Corporation for National and Community Service, Volunteer Centers of Michigan, The LEAGUE, Michigan Campus Compact, and the Michigan Association of United Ways, are leading the effort to increase MLK Day participation in 2009. You can join an organized service project in your area or coordinate a project of your own.

Register your project!

Coordinating a project? Please register it at www.MLKDay.gov.

Looking for ideas?

Find project examples, tips, a project planning toolkit, a fundraising toolkit, and many more resources at www.MLKDay.gov.

Join a project.

Find a project in your area by browsing registered projects at www.MLKDay.gov.

“Everybody can be great because everybody can serve.”

- Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

