

TEAM UP MICHIGAN: IT STARTS WITH US!

Join your national service and Volunteer Center colleagues for a series of regional meetings that will include training, collaboration, and networking.

In a time of increasing community challenges and diminishing program resources, it is essential for members of our national service family to work together. These regional meetings will not only strengthen current partnerships, but will serve as a catalyst for new collaborations among programs. There is no cost to attend these meetings, but there is much to gain!

Who should attend the regional cross-stream meetings?

These meetings are intended for Michigan's AmeriCorps and Senior Corps program directors, Volunteer Center representatives, and Volunteer Generation Fund grantees. Please note: These meetings are not intended for national service program site supervisors, AmeriCorps members, or Senior Corps volunteers.*

What are the benefits of participating in your regional cross-stream meeting?

- Identify and get to know national service colleagues in your region.
- Learn ways to effectively maximize resources in your community.
- Explore new strategies for educating key community leaders about service.
- Discuss how to partner for national days of service.
- Network and strategize for the upcoming program year.

Where are the five regional cross-stream meetings being held?

- Detroit: Wednesday, September 26 at Henry Ford Health Systems from 1:00-4:00pm
- Lansing: Friday, September 28 at Marshall Street Armory from 9:00am-12:00pm
- Traverse City: Monday, October 1 at the TBAISD Career-Tech Center from 1:00-4:00pm
- Houghton: Tuesday, October 2 at BHK Child Development Board from 1:00-4:00pm
- Grand Rapids: Thursday, October 4 at Goodwill Industries from 1:00-4:00pm
