THE CANADIAN/INTERNATIONAL FOOD & BEVERAGE SHOW

International Centre, 6900 Airport Road, Toronto

WELCOME TO THE CANADIAN FOOD & BEVERAGE SHOW

The Canadian Food & Beverage Show is the annual showcase dedicated exclusively to suppliers of food and beverage products for the hospitality industry. The F&B Show offers attendees the opportunity to develop new menu ideas from 650 exhibits as they prepare for the busy spring and summer seasons. The 2006 Food & Beverage Show attracted 9,717 qualified attendees giving them an opportunity to visit international, national and local suppliers of branded, specialty, niche and commodity products.

the facts

- F&B takes place in Toronto, Canada's biggest city and largest foodservice market
- The only international show for Canada's foodservice industry
- 3 day event
- 650 booths
- 9,700 trade attendees
- Only show in North America exclusively for hospitality food and beverage products

what visitors like best

- Developing business contacts and ability to network
- Discovering many new menu ideas
- Finding new suppliers
- Valuable source of new products and ideas
- Extremely broad variety of products under one roof
- Effective source of information, from product knowledge to trends and current issues within the industry
- 93% of F&B visitors would recommend the show to colleagues
- 77% rated the 2006 F&B Show good to excellent

(Source: 2006 F&B Visitor Evaluation)

exhibitor support

- 92% of F&B exhibitors said that they would exhibit in the 2007 show based on:
  - Steady, qualified traffic flow
  - Overwhelming response to new products
  - Quality and diversity of contacts made
  - Solid leads

The Canadian Food & Beverage Show is owned and operated by the Canadian Restaurant and Foodservices Association, the producers of HostEx, Canada's largest hospitality event, ApEx, Atlantic Canada's largest hospitality event and the BC Food Service Expo, the largest hospitality event in Western Canada. The CRFA is one of the largest business associations in Canada. Since its founding in 1944, CRFA has grown to over 33,500 members, representing restaurants, bars, cafeterias and social and contract caterers, as well as accommodation, entertainment and institutional foodservice.

RULES:

Booth display regulations:

Height of 8' for all booths. If occupying exhibit space in a row with other exhibitors on one or both sides, the side-wings of your display may only project forward at the 8' height for 4'. Product, equipment or display material must not obstruct the view of your neighbours' exhibits. Under no circumstances contract for any design or structure production without approval from show management. Aisles must not be obstructed.

Management at its sole discretion may allow exceptions.

Cooking:

In accordance with NFPA Standard 96, and abiding to a ruling imposed by the City of Mississauga Fire Department, the operation of deep fat fryers and frying in exhibits for the purpose of product preparation is not permitted at the show. Deep frying stations will be located around the exhibit area. A daily usage fee will be charged. Please contact show management for further information.

Demonstration and sampling:

Sampling, demonstrations and the distribution of information must be done within the confines of your exhibit areas and in such a manner that the aisles are not blocked or the flow of traffic restricted. Serving tables and demonstration areas must be at least three feet (3') back from the front of your booth. If samplers or demonstration audience interfere with neighbouring exhibitors, the opportunity to sample or demonstrate products can be limited or withdrawn by show management.

SPECIAL SERVICES:

- Free parking for exhibit and show delegates
- Standard draped booth
- Daily booth cleaning at no extra charge
- State of the art computerized registration with visitor information retrieval
- 10 free customer registrations
- Complimentary dishwashing service
- Complimentary fork lift assistance from loading dock to booth
- Special show rates at local hotels for show delegates

ADMITTANCE RESTRICTIONS:

Admission to the Canadian Food & Beverage Show is restricted to industry personnel only, by controlled paid registration. General public and persons under the age of 19 are not permitted. Exhibitors, please ensure personnel working in your exhibit are over the age of 19.

testimonials

"The Food and Beverage Show provides a great venue to showcase new and innovative products and meet with customers from all over Canada."

Neil Blower
National Account Manager, Nestlé Foodservices

"In planning for the F&B Show we set objectives to meet as many quality foodservice buyers in search of new products and new ideas as possible. The show provided us with the results we expected."

Frank Iannace
Foodservice Sales Manager, Italpasta Limited

"The Food and Beverage Show was the first in Canada for us. We are very pleased with the exposure and sales we gained from the show."

Nadine Spencer
Director, Product Development, Finer Foods Ltd.

"The 2006 F&B Show proved to be a huge success for our company. As a first time exhibitor, the number and quality of attendees impressed us. It was tremendous exposure for the value, leading to new clientele all over Canada. We look forward to being back in 2007!"

Josie Ciardullo
President / Founder, Josie's Famous Foods

FOR RETURNING EXHIBITORS:

All contracted exhibitors in the 2006 show will be given first right of refusal for the same space location in the 2007 show. Complete the space application enclosed with this brochure, indicating your space requirements and return it with your deposit prior to the renewal deadline stated on the application. Upon receipt of your application, show management will contact you to finalize your requirements before proceeding with an exhibit space contract.

FOR NEW APPLICANTS:

Complete the application enclosed with this brochure and return it with the required deposit as soon as possible. Exhibit space for new exhibitors will be allocated following allocation of space to returning exhibitors. Upon receipt of your space application and deposit, show management will contact you to discuss your requirements and space availability as soon as possible.

Please note: Acceptance of the application and deposit by show organizers does not constitute an offer of space or facility.

EXHIBIT SPACE CANCELLATION POLICY:

Once an exhibit space contract has been issued, cancellation of any or all of the exhibit space requested in the exhibit space application before December 1, 2006 shall entitle CRFA, as operators of the Canadian Food & Beverage Show, to a cancellation fee of 25% of the rental value of the space for which cancellation is requested. CRFA will apply any deposit received against such cancellation charges and refund to you any surplus or alternatively claim the balance from you at that time. No cancellation shall be permitted after December 1, 2006. The exhibitor will be responsible after that date for the full amount of the exhibit rental space and any collections therewith as reasonably determined by CRFA. Notification of cancellation must be received by the CRFA in written form.

Details and conditions in this brochure and the floor plan are preliminary, and may be changed later to suit exhibit requirements.

SPACE RATES

- Booth spaces are sold in units of 10'x10'
- $2,225 (CDN) per 10'x10' (plus 6% GST)
Corner Premium $150.00
- Minimum contract for space is $2,225
- Floor covering in all booths is mandatory and is the responsibility of the Exhibitor
